

INTERNATIONAL WINTER SCHOOL

GLOBAL COFFEESCAPES

Understanding the
Coffee Commodity Chain:
Land, Labour, and Environment

3 - 7 FEBRUARY 2020

Università degli Studi di Pavia | Aula Volta, Palazzo Centrale

Why coffee?

With an estimated market value of 83 billion USD and 2.25 billion cups consumed every day, coffee employs about 125 million people worldwide and is one of the most traded agricultural commodities.

About the Winter School

The Winter School aims to establish an interdisciplinary platform to enable stakeholders from the academia, international agencies, and private and public sectors, to discuss about the present and the future of the coffee sector.

Global CoffeeScapes

Global CoffeeScapes will engage scholars, international experts, professionals and students, in an inclusive discussion through keynote speeches, seminars and round tables. Different networking sessions will be organized to foster a dialogue that will extend well beyond the Winter School.

All sessions will be held in:
Aula Volta, Corso Strada Nuova, 65

English is the official language

Public entrance is free according to seating availability
